

Preparing for Jurisdictionally Complex Wildfires: Are the Right Actors Having the Right Conversations?

3rd Annual National Cohesive Wildland Fire Management Strategy Workshop

"Hi, my name is..."

"How and when are we going to communicate with each other about potential threats?"

"How do we communicate concerns and offer assistance when we perceive a significant threat from a fire that is on your jurisdiction?"

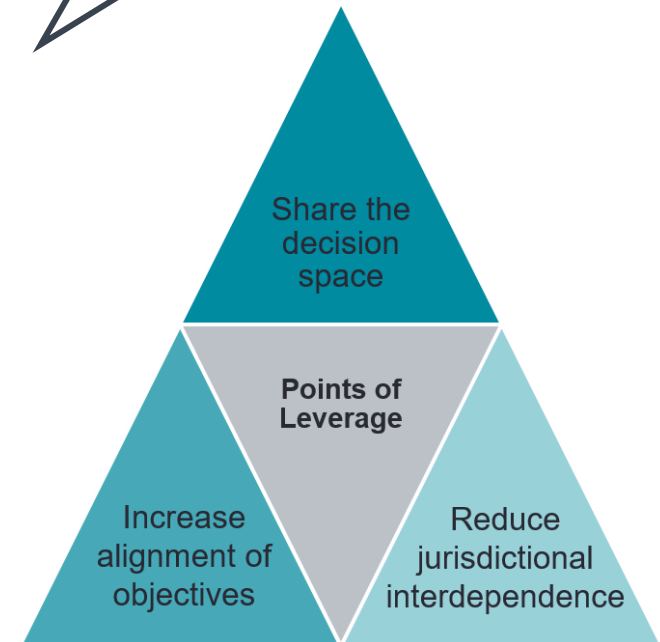

Barriers to Co-Management

Predicting future involvement of jurisdictions is difficult

More actors = More difficult to communicate

Command structures = unclear roles
